I see one maybe in Fare

10/22/2025 9:49:01 AM

I know about the first guy. He's on the run after failing to register

10/22/2025 8:50:10 AM

David Bilings (+17325138156)
You should get Codi educated and onboard.
Are you sure we have no one in violation of the Fate sexual offenders laws.

10/22/2025 1:04:14 PM

We have one guy on the run, one who's in his move-out grace period (90 days) and has his house on the market, and that one guy in the picture should not be in the registry. His victim was over 16 and he was only required to be registered by the court for 10 years.

10/22/2025 1:04:45 PM

We're looking at the maps to make sure. There could always be some hiding

Thank you. I get it. We have two then ?

10/22/2025 1:06:22 PM

We have one who meets the ordinance restrictions and is moving out (DPS checked on him today), and one that ran away. The runner failed to register and has a felony warrant on him from us for failure to register. He's also in trouble with Arizona
